LIGHT A CANDLE AND CELEBRATE YOUR CHILD'S BEAUTIFUL VOICE Thursday, 7th April (6pm)

Dear Parent / Carer,

This half term during our Collective Worship, we have been learning about the inspirational activist Malala Yousafzai and how fortunate we are to have access to school, education and books. During our World Book Day celebrations, Mrs Harley introduced us all to an amazing book, My Beautiful Voice – a moving picture book about confidence and self-belief. We have been using all of this learning to help inspire us to use our own beautiful voices to bring wonderful story books to life.

This evening, your child will be coming home with a special tealight alongside their clay tealight candle holder that they have made in school. At 6pm this evening, I am inviting you to help light your child's tealight and celebrate them using their beautiful voice to read aloud a story book (this could be their book from school or a favourite book at home).

To develop our children's self-confidence, we have been using these special phrases:

My name is
I have a beautiful voice.
Now hear me read.

We have been learning about fire safety within our theme work this term and our children do know that they must not play with candles, lighters, matches etc. Please ensure that you light and position your child's candle safely – please supervise its use at all times. We recommend that your child blows out their candle after finishing their reading.

This has been such a special project in school and I really do hope that you can all join me, from the comfort of your own homes, at 6pm this evening to celebrate your child's beautiful reading voice. I would love for you to share any photographs and/or videos via Class Dojo of your child's reading in front of their candle at home for a special display in school.

Kind regards,

Ms. K Leach Headteacher
